

LEARN MORE ABOUT HUMAN TRAFFICKING IN THE UNITED STATES.

It's not just an international issue. Exploitation of children and trafficking for commercial sex happens in every state in our country. Ascent 121 recommends these learning resources:

► BOOKS

Girls Like Us, Rachel Lloyd

Somebody's Daughter, Julian Sher

Renting Lacy, Linda Smith

Walking Prey, Holly Austin Smith

The White Umbrella, Mary Francis Bowley

► DOCUMENTARY FILMS

A Path Appears (iTunes - episode one dated 1/26/15)

Chosen (SharedHope.org)

In Plain Sight: Stories of Hope and Freedom (Amazon)

Nefarious: Merchant of Souls (Amazon Instant or DVD)

Very Young Girls (Amazon Instant)

► PODCASTS

Human Trafficking: What You Need To Know
(Series from Focus on the Family Daily Broadcast)

► DEVOTIONALS

31 Days of Freedom: In Plain Sight (Amazon)

31 Days of Freedom (reading plan in YouVersion Bible app)

► WEBSITES

SharedHope.org - Indiana's Protected Innocence Report Card

TraffickingResourceCenter.org

According to Shared Hope International, every year more than 100,000 children in America are being exploited through pornography or prostitution. Ascent 121 is an Indianapolis ministry that serves teen victims and their families. We need your help. Visit Ascent121.org to learn about volunteer, career and internship opportunities.

Ascent 121 is a faith-based, non-profit agency with a mission of addressing domestic human trafficking through clinical services, aftercare, awareness, outreach and discipleship.

Ascent121.org | 317.759.0067 | @AscentOne21

ASCENT 121